

kokon furniture
table-chair

by Jurgen Bey for Droog®

Here old furniture is combined and disguised to produce new forms, functions and identities. By using the so-called spider's web technique, desolate furniture is wrapped with synthetic fibres creating a smooth, elastic skin. The Kokon furniture range was a result of Droog's 1997 Dry Tech project.

Designer: Jurgen Bey

Product code: 067 00

Material: PVC covering, existing furniture

Size: various models & colours

edition of 12